"MORTGAGE BURNING CELEBRATION!"

May 27, 2005

Ann Arbor, MI- On Tuesday, June 7th, 2005 Ozone House, a non-profit agency that provides housing and support services to youth, plans to publicly announce that they have paid off their mortgage at their 1705 Washtenaw Location, by having a "mortgage burning" ceremony on location from 4:30-5:30 PM.

Ozone House Executive Director Mary Jo Callan said, "Thanks to the tremendous support from the community, we have paid off the mortgage for our main facility at 1705 Washtenaw, enabling us to redirect monthly mortgage and interest payments toward services that directly help youth and their families."

Ozone House has been in the community for 35 years, and has owned the location at 1705 Washtenaw since 1997.
